

2019

IGF Youth Ambassadors Fellowship Program

Lianna Galstyan
ArmSIG3
11-13 September 2019
Yerevan, Armenia

Program Components

3-phase selection process

Online applications

All applicants must be:

- ▶ Internet Society Members
- ▶ between the ages of 18 and 30
- ▶ able to present a strong motivation for Internet Governance
- ▶ able to demonstrate interest and expertise in issues on the IGF agenda
- ▶ comfortable with public speaking and communicating positions
- ▶ capable of appropriately represent the Internet Society and its views and policies as an Ambassador during the IGF
- ▶ capable of continuing to work with the Internet Society locally after the IGF
- ▶ fluent in English

Program Components

4-week online IG course

The topics include:

- ▶ Internet Governance
- ▶ Internet Policy Principles
- ▶ Actors and Stakeholder Groups
- ▶ Regulatory Frameworks

Program Components

Paper Writing

- ▶ Applicants passed the previous 2 phases are required to write a paper on an existing or emerging area in Internet Governance, leveraging the learnings from the course.
- ▶ The individuals who submit the best papers will be selected as IGF Youth Ambassadors (up to 30).

Expectations for IGF Youth Ambassadors

Before the Forum

- ▶ Selected individuals should participate at Webinar Series led by global Internet Governance experts to deepen their knowledge, present their projects/ideas and be prepared for the IGF

Attending the IGF

- ▶ IGF Youth Ambassadors receive support to attend the Global Internet Governance Forum

Details: <https://www.internetsociety.org/fellowship/igf-youth-ambassadors-program/>